Artist in Spotlight

Mahabanoo Mody-Kotwal

Ms Mahabanoo Mody-Kotwal is a nationally and internationally acclaimed producer, director, and stage and screen actor. She became one of India's first stand-up artists and first female stand-up artist in the mid-1990s and has since performed to rave reviews in Bombay, Pune, Delhi, Calcutta, Hyderabad, Madras, London, Sri Lanka and Singapore.

Ms Mahabanoo recently received the very prestigious Karmaveer Puraskar Award for her work in using art towards solving issues of social justice, particularly in the arena of violence against women. She was chosen by Femina Magazine as one of the 50 most powerful women in India in 2007. Human rights activist and author Zerbanoo Gifford, in her recently released book Confessions to a serial Womansier - Secrets of the World's Inspirational Women, has featured Mahabanoo as one of the 200 most inspirational women in the world. The book was launched along with portraits of these women at the National Portrait Gallery in London. Ms Mahabanoo was privileged to have been selected to the Yale School of Drama's directing programme and successfully completed coursework at one of the best theatre institutions in the world.
